

Winter 2017

The Society has had a busy few months promoting Glyndŵr's name and story - and supporting events around the country.

During the weekend of Dydd Glyndŵr in September, our members:-

- * were in Machynlleth to hear talks by Prof Gruffydd Aled Williams and Dr Elin Jones, and to take part in the 'Machynlleth Triad' walk led by Allan Wynne Jones and three local school pupils;
- * attended the commemoration service and parade in Corwen, and had a stand at their Fun Day where Society flags, badges, car stickers, family tree scrolls, etc. were sold;
- * had a medieval feast at the Porth Hotel in Llandysul organised by Dr John H. Davies;
- * heard a talk on Glyndŵr given by Alun Lenny in Yr Atom in Carmarthen.

We held our AGM at the The King's Head in Llandovery on October 7th where our guest speaker was the local historian, Dai Gealy. He focussed on the sculpture of Llewelyn ap Gruffydd Fychan in the town - which was appropriate as it commemorated Llywelyn's death on October 9th, 1401.

Members of the Committee were also present at Glyndŵr University for the awarding of the Society's Alumnus Prize to Prof Jan Green for her work in forging links with local employers.

Usually, the first event in the New Year is the parade in Hope and Caergwrle at the end of February. Before then, however, we hope to announce developments with regard to the installation of a noticeboard in Six Ashes near Bridgnorth. It was a significant place for Owain and was mentioned in the Tripartite Indenture.

The Executive Committee wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year – and we hope to see you at some of our activities in 2018.
