

Winter 2018

It has been another busy year for the Society, and there have been some notable events since our last newsletter:

- * During the weekend of Dydd Glyndŵr in September, our members were in Corwen to hear a talk by Dewi Prysor, and to attend the commemoration service and parade in the town;
- * The Society's annual trip was to Pennal on September 15th and the AGM was held in Canolfan Pennal in the village. Our guest speaker was our valued member, Dr Elin Jones.
- * The Society's Alumnus Prize was awarded to Andrew Jones, particularly for his work in establishing and running the successful Focus Wales music event in Wrexham.

The first event of 2019 will be the parade in Hope and Caergwrle on Sunday, February 24th, where the Cambria Band will lead a procession to commemorate the liberation of the area by Glyndŵr's forces in 1403. Please visit our website to see details of other upcoming events.

The Society has done its utmost to ensure that The Age of the Princes – and especially Owain's story – is included in the new History curriculum which is currently being finalised in schools. Unfortunately, there is still no guarantee that we have been successful, and so any contribution that you can make to help us with this would be greatly appreciated.

On behalf of the Executive Committee, may I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year – and we hope to see you at some of our activities in 2019.
