

Autumn 2017

We had a successful Society trip to Pembrokeshire on Saturday, September 2nd, and managed to talk about Owain's campaign in a number of places en route. Luckily, the weather was much kinder to us than it was last year!

There are a number of events being held around the country during the weekend of Dydd Glyndŵr (September 16th). Get full details here.

Members of the Society will be at as many of the main events as possible – and we hope that you are able to celebrate with us at one of them. There will be a Society stand in Corwen on Dydd Glyndŵr, for example, where we will be selling flags, car stickers, family tree scrolls, etc.

Finally, this year's Society AGM will be held at the The King's Head in Llandovery on Saturday, October 7th at 11.30 a.m. After lunch, the Society is delighted that our guest speaker will be the local historian, Dai Gealy.

We hope that you will be able to join us on the day.
